Framework

Ribbon Integration

Extensions are now hosted by a specific Revit ribbon tab called “Extensions.” The Revit Extension manager has been removed. In addition, some tooltips have been added for each extension with a short description of the feature.

Units

All extensions support a proper fractional reduction and decimal inches for imperial units to be consistent with Revit.

Appendix

The Revit Extensions for Autodesk Revit MEP 2012 package contains all the following Revit Extensions:

Revit Extensions
	Full Title
Miscellaneous
	Elements Positioning
